GRAND DUCHESS TATIANA

TATIANA NICOLAEVNA ROMAN OFF, second daughter of the de-posed carr of Russia, soon will be seen in the United States in Rus-sian dances, in aid of the Russian civilian relief, an American organiza-civilian relief, an American organiza-tion with offices in New York. An-nouncement has been made to the ef-fect that Miss Romanoff, former grand duchers, is now on the Pacific on her way to the United States, chaperoned by an English woman.

If Miss Romanoff has as much ability in dancing as she hop nerve and pluck she will make a success of her riay in this country, for her escale from the Siberian prison where she was confined with her fether, bether, brother and mistres reads like a motion picture accuratio.

In order to excape from the stricter details of the englongue kept over her by the present Hussian government with Ecomanoff entered into a muck marriage with the gon of a man who at one time was chamberlain to the naperoned by an English woman.

Pictures from Home

VER there, with thousands of miles of sea and land between them and home, are Our Boys, smiling and fighting -fighting with bullets, against a dogged foe; with smiles, fighting homesickness and dread monotony.

It's a part of the nation's job today to keep those boys cheerful, to hold fast the bonds between camp and home, to make light hearts and smiling faces-and these things pictures can help to do-pictures of the home folks and the home doings, pictures of the neighbors, pictures that will enliven their memories of the days before the war -simple Kodak pictures, such as you can make. These can help.

A Kodak for Christmas is an ideal Gift. Our complete stock gives you ample selec-
